HEALTH SYSTEMS/ INFORMATICS Research Interest Group

ABOUT

HSIRIG nurses improve the accuracy of the Military Healthcare System (MHS) resource planning, and the quality and safety of its clinical care.

This community:

- Provides subject matter expertise to generate new health services and informatics knowledge through research, collaboration, and innovation.
- Supports the translation of health systems and informatics research into practice through Evidence-Based Practice (EBP), performance or process improvement, and quality improvement projects.
- Aligns resources to enhance MHS planning and decision making to improve patient outcomes.
- Offers coaching and mentorship to military and civilian nurses within MHS seeking professional development and/or graduate education in health services or informatics fields.
